

November CMMUN Dresscode

MALE STUDENTS ACCEPTABLE ATTIRE FOR MALES:

- dress shirt (can be long sleeve or short sleeve)
- tie (tied appropriately, should not be worn loosened around the neck)
- dress trousers
- dress shoes
- suit coat (Must be worn when speaking)
- national dress of the home country being represented (To an extent deemed politically correct by the delegate)

UNACCEPTABLE ATTIRE FOR MALES

- jeans, corduroy, or any kind of denim trousers
- sneakers
- baseball caps
- any other type of hat (unless worn for religious purposes)
- un-tucked shirts (shirts are expected to be tucked in at all times)
- shorts of any type
- t-shirts of any type worn as the primary shirt (t-shirts worn under a dress shirt are fine)
- 'sagging' trousers
- all trousers should be belted at waist level

FEMALE STUDENTS ACCEPTABLE ATTIRE FOR FEMALES

- women's business suit with skirt/slacks, blouse, and jacket
- professional dresses
- skirt/blouse combinations
- slacks and blouse combinations
- dress shoes, sandals
- scarves as part of a professional ensemble or head-dress
- head coverings are fine if worn for religious purposes or as part of a national costume of the female's home country or the country being represented
- school uniforms consisting of blouse with skirt/trousers
- national dress of the home country being represented (To an extent deemed politically correct by the delegate)

UNACCEPTABLE ATTIRE FOR FEMALES

- jeans, corduroy, or any kind of denim trousers, skirt, or jacket
- sneakers
- hats, berets, bandanas
- very tight, form-fitting trousers
- trousers with studs, embroidery, or any other type of applied designs
- miniskirts
- low cut blouses
- blouses that are very tight/form fitting
- shorts of any type
- tops that reveal a bare midriff
- t-shirts of any type